Company Overview:

FTG, Inc. is a U.S.-based, minority-owned small business committed to delivering high-quality, American-made products and solutions. Since 1991, we have proudly designed, engineered, and manufactured our products in California, USA — supporting local jobs and upholding the highest quality standards.

With over 100 years of collective experience in mobile, marine, industrial, and heavy-duty parts and filtration, our team brings a legacy of innovation, performance, and customer focus. Our dual facilities in Santa Fe Springs and Modesto, California, position us to meet the evolving needs of our clients with speed, precision, and reliability.

Core Competencies, Markets, and Products:

- Made in USA: Development, manufacturing, and distribution of niche, American-made product solutions for mobile, marine, industrial, defense, and energy sectors.
 - OEM and OEM supplier collaboration to provide tailored solutions.
 - Comprehensive filtration system solutions (fuel, oil, air, water, hydraulic, and gaseous fluids) with custom-engineered accessories.
 - Vibration Isolation Components.
 - Heavy-duty parts and Fuel Senders supply.
 - Assembly, sub-assembly, and kitting services in both small and high-volume production runs.
 - Direct support for OEM purchasing and sales departments with custom product development.

At FTG, Inc., every product reflects our core values: quality, service, and a commitment to American manufacturing excellence. Our goal is simple: to help our customers succeed with dependable, made in USA solutions.

Our strength lies in our ability to listen, understand, and perform for our customers. Our job is to meet customer specifications—period.
